

KARL SPRINGER, CHINESE CURVED BACK CHAIR, USA, C. 1980S

This documented rare chair by Karl Springer, found in his catalogue of original creations, is made of chrome-plated steel, brass and lucite. The seat cushion is upholstered in a fine silk with vibrant koi scene.

SKU: LU832838886622 | Categories: Seating | Tags: Karl Springer

GALLERY IMAGES

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

|                                 |                                                                                                                                   |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Date of Manufacture      | 1980's                                                                                                                            |
| Dimensions               | Height: 36.5 inWidth: 24 inDepth: 24 inSeat Height: 18.5 in                                                           |
| Sold As                  | Single item                                                                                                                       |
| Materials and Techniques | Acrylic, Brass, Silk, Stainless Steel                                                                                             |
| Place of Origin          | USA                                                                                                                               |
| Period                   | 1980-1989                                                                                                                         |
| Condition                | Good - Wear consistent with age and use. Normal wear, fabric is fine, acrylic is normal use and wear for age. The chair is heavy. |

