

AN EARLY HUNT SLONEM SIGNED RABBIT PAINTING 2014 - OIL ON WOOD

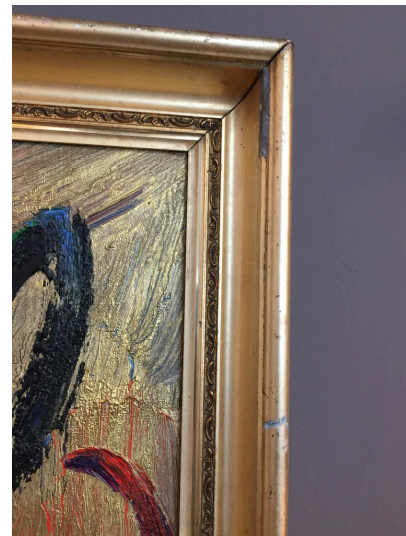

Metallic silver and gold background with vibrant red bunny outline, framed beautifully. SIGNED and dated 2014 - early work for Slonem.

Hunt Slonem is a renowned painter known for producing representational imagery and abstract expressionism. Slonem was born in Kittery, York County, ME. He attended Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture, Skowhegan, ME, in 1972, before moving to Tulane University in New Orleans, LA, where he graduated with a BA in 1973. As a founding element of his process, Slonem likes to say, "Repetition is very important." He starts each day painting, treating each moment as one of profound meditation in an attempt to channel a higher consciousness. Included in this ritual are his famous bunny paintings - the result of a daily morning warm-up that was sparked during a late-night revelation at a Chinese restaurant: that he was born in the Year of the Rabbit. His famous Bunny Wall combines his art with his passion for collecting, as the paintings are exhibited in Victorian-era portrait frames picked up from his travels across the country.
